Barby Ingle Announces Candidacy for Arizona State Representative - Legislative District 7

Apache Junction, Pinal County, Arizona: Barby Ingle, a renowned healthcare advocate, certified patient leader, and Pinal County Precinct Committeeman, confidently announces her candidacy for Arizona State Representative - Legislative District 7. Ingle, who has personally experienced healthcare challenges, has been a proud resident of Arizona since 2003 and is running as a Republican candidate in the upcoming primary elections.

Ingle's robust platform is centered on fiscal responsibility, election integrity, border security, improving individualized healthcare for Arizonans, and supporting small businesses. With extensive experience in the healthcare industry, Ingle has been honored by several organizations for her outstanding advocacy work in chronic pain and rare disease management. She is the 2024 Alignable Business person of the year in Apache Junction, AZ.

"Arizona is facing several challenges, particularly in the areas of lack of border control, education, and healthcare shortages," said Ingle. As a healthcare advocate, business creator, and author, I possess the knowledge, resources, and expertise to address these challenges effectively. I am committed to working tirelessly to ensure that Arizonans have access to affordable healthcare, a balanced budget, and a secure state that applies law and order equally."

Ingle is deeply committed to supporting small businesses and strengthening the state's economy. "Small businesses are the backbone of Arizona's economy," she said. "I am confident I can develop and implement policies to promote entrepreneurship and will work to ensure a thriving economy through the legislation I help pass."

Ingle graduated from George Mason University with a Bachelor's degree in Psychology. She has served on the boards of several healthcare organizations, including the International Pain Foundation, the Creating Patient Access Task Force, and the Arizona Chronic Care Together Coalition.

"I am thrilled to announce my candidacy for Arizona State Representative - Legislative District 7," said Ingle. "My passion, experience, and knowledge, coupled with my connection to healthcare challenges, service as a precinct committeeman, and business owner, make me the ideal candidate to represent the interests of the people of Arizona Legislative District 7, including Pinal, Gila, Coconino, and Navajo Counties. We can build a stronger, healthier, and more prosperous Arizona together."
